Making Good Choices

God is all-loving. You can be, too, by making loving choices in your life. On the chart, tell how God is your best friend. Then tell how you can be a good friend to people.

Family Note: Your child is learning about making good choices. If this activity is done at home, guide your child in completing the chart. Help your child understand that being a good friend is showing love like God does.

Catechist Note: This activity is used with Chapter 4, "Loving Choices." You may wish to write on the board volunteers' suggestions for how to be a good friend. The children can use the suggestions on the board to help fill out their charts.
